Credit Union Regional Economics and Investments Luncheon to be held June 26th in Metro Washington, D.C.

WASHINGTON, D.C. - (Tuesday, June 2, 2009) – Callahan and Associates announces a critical meeting to be held at the Key Bridge Marriott, 1401 Lee Highway, Rosslyn, Virginia, on Friday, June 26, 2009 from 10:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. EDT.

Executives from Callahan Financial Services and Goldman Sachs Asset Management will address key financial topics at this complimentary, timely luncheon. Coverage of top-of-mind issues for credit union CEOs and CFOs will include:

- Analysis of first quarter 2009 industry (national and regional) trends, including case studies to illustrate specific, proven strategies credit unions are using to help members in this turbulent economy.
- Goldman Sachs will present their latest forecast and will address how projections for fiscal and monetary policy impact credit unions, specifically consumer behavior.
- Goldman Sachs Portfolio Managers will share fixed-income strategies and approaches to credit surveillance within an ALM framework.
- A credit union roundtable discussion will focus on the implementation of the corporate stabilization program, NCUA's actions, and credit union ALM strategies.

This Regional Luncheon is for credit union CEOs, CFOs, and Finance teams. Although there is no registration fee, space is limited and early reservations are recommended. Please visit www.creditunions.com/regional to reserve your seat. The Key Bridge Marriott is a three-block walk from the Rosslyn Metro Station, served by the Blue and Orange Lines.
